

2023 Tax Preparation Service Agreement

Thank you for choosing Hamilton Financial[®]

This agreement is between Hamilton Financial[®] (The Tax Professional) and You (The Taxpayer).

1. Hamilton Financial[®] will:

- Give a FREE 15 min consultation to review your personal tax situation. We will explore the most favorable filing status to use, we will review your tax documents with you and discuss the credits and deductions you deserve.

We promise to properly prepare your taxes using all the forms you need to file with the IRS. We promise to discuss your completed tax return results with you. We promise to deliver a completed return and offer suggestions to help maximize your finances in future years.

2. Representation:

- Should the need arise, Hamilton Financial[®] may refer a client to a Certified Public Accountant. One qualified in our network and certified to speak to the IRS on your behalf.

3. Availability:

- Hamilton Financial[®] is open all year, during tax season and after tax season. By Appointment (as needed).

4. Delivery of Completed Tax Results

- Completed tax results will be provided following full payment of services rendered or the client has agreed to have payment deducted from tax return refund.

- After submitting to the IRS, if payment is not deducted from tax return for any reason, full payment must be received before receiving a copy of completed tax returns.

- Taxpayer may receive a copy of their tax results as a hard copy to mailing address on tax return or sent via secured email. Hamilton Financial[®] WILL NOT fax completed tax returns.*

5. Security

- Hamilton Financial[®] will take every precaution to safeguard clients' information and prevent identity theft.

6. Client Responsibilities

- Hamilton Financial[®] is not responsible for tax returns completed without all required documentation. It is solely the client's responsibility to ensure all necessary tax documentation have been received by Hamilton Financial[®] in order to proceed with tax preparation services.
